

Liberty Church Deacon Job Description

Updated 10/25/2024

1. Meet the requirements as outlined in God's Word in 1 Timothy 3:1-13 and Titus 1:5-9.
2. Be actively seeking the will and direction of God in your daily life through quiet times, prayer and Bible study. And to this point, actively lead your family in Bible study and ensure that their spiritual well being is cared for including but not limited to praying and spending time with your spouse (if applicable), praying and spending time with your children (if applicable) and leading them all to a better understanding of God's Word on a consistent basis.
3. Attend Sunday morning services, other scheduled Sunday events and Wednesday night activities unless providentially hindered.
4. Actively serve in at least one ministry in the life of the church, and be supportive of the overall ministry of the church.
5. Participate in all scheduled deacon body activities including but not limited to monthly deacon's meetings unless providentially hindered.
6. Carry out visitation duties as needed including but not limited to hospital visits, sick visits, funeral visits, visiting with widows and others as the need arrives.
7. Assist in preparing and serving the Lord's Supper as needed.
8. Be actively involved in a discipleship group to aid in personal growth.
9. Practice personal evangelism of the lost as opportunities arise.
10. Pray for and be an active supporter of the Pastor, pastoral staff, church staff and the deacon leadership team.
11. Be responsible for keeping the confidential matters that sometimes arise in church leadership confidential as to establish and maintain the trust and faith of the body of Christ.

I have read and understand all duties of a Deacon as outlined above, and, if affirmed by the Church, will perform them to the best of my abilities. And if such time arises that I am no longer able to perform these duties, I will voluntarily submit my letter of resignation to the Pastor and Deacon Leadership.
